Dear Folks:

Here it is Sunday afternoon. I was going to write you yesterday but when I had time I wasn't in the ~~moo~~ mood & when I was in the mood I didn't have time.

Norma & I are on the third floor. We found a few chairs that are half-way easy. We first went out to the sand dunes but it ~~was~~ is windy & cold out there so we came up here. The reason why is Norma has a headache.

Tomorrow we start for home. We expect to spend

I still have ten dollars left. have spent $5. while I have been up here. I gave Marvin another 5.00.

Well here it is Monday morning and half past 8. Have the suit case almost all packed. Expect to get home Thurs. The sun actually came out this morning at 7:30

Everyone is feeling fine. The only accident. Jane, yesterday morning got her middle finger of right hand most of our first day in "Frisco". Getting outside of the city in some kind of a camp to spend the nite.

Last nite was the first evening meeting that we stayed to. Thurs & Fri. nites we stayed ~~just long enough~~ until it was time for the main speaker & then went out. We didn't go to any of the meetings at all on Wed. After the meeting was over we ~~went~~ stayed to see the fire works that was special for the C.E's. The Meeting wasn't out until almost eleven & by the time we had taken the girls home it was 12. No more or no less. We had breakfast between 9:30 & 10 this morning
